Eminent jurists attend Advocates' 10th Conference

Government committed to pass Karnataka Prohibition of Violence against Advocates Bill: CM

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah and Karnataka State Bar Council Chairman H.L. Vishalaraghu lighting the lamp to inaugurate the 10th State-level Advocates' Conference in city this morning as Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister H.K. Patil, District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and others look on. Picture right shows a section of audience.

Mysuru, Aug. 12 (MTY&DM)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has said that his Government was firmly committed to pass the Karnataka Prohibition of Violence against Advocates Bill, 2023, for the betterment of the legal fraternity.

He made this statement after inaugurating the two-day Karnataka State-level Advocates' 10th Conference, organised by the Karnataka State Bar Council in collaboration with the Mysuru Bar Association at the Dasara Exhibition Grounds in the heart of the city this morning.

"I have two reasons to take great pleasure in inaugurating this event. One, I am an advocate myself, and two, the conference is being held in my hometown of Mysuru after a considerable gap of 14 years," he said.

Addressing the demands outlined by the Bar Council, Siddharamaiah affirmed that his administration was dedicated to addressing all feasible and reasonable demands on a priority basis. He mentioned that during his time as the Opposition Leader, he had advocated for the introduction of the Advocates Protection Bill.

He assured that the Bill would be passed and enacted during the upcoming Assembly Session. As he made this announcement, the advocates present at the event unitedly cheered, proclaiming, "This is the government's sixth guarantee."

Challenges faced by advocates

Recognising the multitude of challenges faced by advocates in their profession, he underscored the significance of the Advocates Protection Act in ensuring their security. In response to the Bar Council's request for land allotment in Bengaluru, the CM acknowledged the space shortage in the capital city's central area. He suggested that the Bar Council itself identify a suitable location for the site and recommend it to the Government for consideration.

Siddharamaiah emphasised that the two-day conference should primarily focus on issues related to the welfare of the underprivileged and society as a whole. He underlined the pivotal role advocates play in addressing societal concerns.

The event is taking place at the vast Dasara Exhibition Grounds, nestled in the heart of the city. The venue and its surroundings are adorned with a festive ambiance, featuring numerous flex-banners that embellish the sprawling expanse of the Grounds.

Accommodation arrangements have been made for various attendees where hotels have been reserved for Supreme Court and High Court Judges, retired judges and senior advocates attending the conference. In parallel, dormitories and choultries have been secured to house the vast number of advocate attendees.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

I remember years ago when I met Professor Satish Dhawan at the Indian Institute of Science. He had invited me and psychologist Ashish Nandy to debate on the Bhopal Gas Tragedy and science with his colleagues. Satish had a real sense of life and science. It did not make him less purposive. It was clear that space research was a dream and he was a dreamer. Space research had a sense of discovery, adventure and storytelling and yet retained the scientific method's creativity and rigour. Satish was a fascinating persona, a man with an aesthetic sensibility who lived an ascetic life. I later discovered that he washed his own clothes. He brought that same asceticism to space research. The professor knew how to celebrate science as a statement of creativity and freedom, and he wanted Thumba to be an expression of that.

Today when we read reports of Chandrayaan, they sound like government diktats. Journalism virtually mimics the government handouts: the mission is reduced to a technical answer to a technical question. The nation-state and big science are all-powerful, impoverishing the imagination of science as a narrative. What one misses, in particular, is a sense of dream and passion, a sense of cognition as anima. Space cannot just be a technical journey; it has to be a normative framework, a pilgrim's progress. Science needs to add to the moral perspective.

This requires a new kind of science education, a new pedagogy where science helps create new ethics. One needs a new sharing of knowledge and a new sharing of the fruits of discovery. To commoditise space is to make ecology obscene and to desacralise the earth. Space needs new metaphors rather than the hackneyed repetition of the robot machine.

800-pound 'Butter Cow' sculpture

Illinois: The Illinois State Fair unveiled one of the annual event's most beloved and unusual perennial attractions: an 800-pound cow sculpted from butter.

The 102nd Butter Cow was officially unveiled by Illinois Gov. J.B. Pritzker and Agriculture Director Jerry Costello II at the Illinois State Fairgrounds.

The current iteration of the Butter Cow depicts the bovine being milked by Illinois dairy farmer Lorilee Shultz from Mill-R-Mor Dairy in Orangeville. A second sculpture in the same case shows Shultz's granddaughter, Lucy, taking care of a calf.

The 2023 Butter Cow was sculpted by artist Sarah Pratt.

Cyclist rides 500 miles backward for world record

Alaska: An Alaskan cyclist is attempting to get recognition from Guinness World Records after taking a 500-mile bike ride across Iowa -- while riding backward.

Will Walker took a 500-mile ride across the state with about 30,000 other cyclists in this year's Register's Annual Great Bicycle Ride Across Iowa, but Walker was the only member of the group to sit on his handlebars and look over his shoulder to steer while riding.

"I was just sitting with my buddies. I was sitting just like this talking to them and I just decided to see if I can ride like this. Now I'm starting to do events and I'm getting recognized all over the world for it." he said.

Walker submitted evidence from his ride to Guinness World Records to see if he can capture the record for longest distance cycling backward. The current record was set at 209.77 miles by Australian Andrew Hellinga in 2013.

Rahul Gandhi to launch Gruha Lakshmi scheme on Aug. 29 or 30: CM

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah addressing media persons at Mysuru Airport in Mandakalli this morning as District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and others look on.

Mysuru, Aug.12(BLU&DM)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah said that the 'Gruha Lakshmi' scheme (Rs.2,000 per month financial assistance to the woman head of every eligible family in the State), one of the five pre-poll promises, will be launched by Congress leader Rahul Gandhi either on Aug. 29 or 30.

Speaking to presspersons at Mysuru Airport. Mandakalli here upon his arrival from Bengaluru in a special flight this morning, Siddharamaiah said out of the 1.33 crore eligible families, 1.06 crore families have registered so far for 'Gruha Lakshmi' scheme.

Pointing out that top Congress leader Rahul Gandhi will officially launch the scheme on Aug. 29 or 30, he said that the Government's other Poll promise 'Yuva Nidhi' (Rs.3,000 financial assistance to unemployed graduates and Rs.1,500 to unemployed diploma holders) will be launched in December.

When asked about Tamil Nadu's plea with the Cauvery Water Management Authority (CWMA) seeking release of 37.2 TMC of water to Tamil Nadu, Siddharamaiah said that Karnataka itself was facing shortage of water, with a shortfall in rains in Cauvery River basin and hence there was no question of releasing water to TN right now.

"There is no surplus Cauvery water to release to TN. Karnataka itself is staring at a water crisis, with the monsoon playing truant. As such the State can consider release of water to TN only if there is copious rainfall in the coming days," he asserted.

Replying to a question on when the ZP and TP polls will be held, the CM said that the Court has granted 10 weeks time for delimitation in respect of ZP and TP Constituencies and 12 weeks in respect of BBMP seats. The Government will take a decision only after the delimitation process is complete and what the Court says on the matter, he maintained.

Strongly opposing the Centre's proposed law that aims to keep the Chief Justice of India (CJI) out of the selection panel for the appointment of Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) and Election Commissioners (ECs), the CM alleged that the Centre was out to have total control of the Election Commission ahead of next year's Lok Sabha Polls.

Asserting that the Government was probing the 40 percent commission allegations made by the Karnataka Contractors Association against the previous BJP Government, the CM said that the Government was awaiting a report from the probe agency and action will surely be taken against all those found guilty.

Referring to the payment of bills, he said that such contractors who have executed works as per the contract would definitely be paid. Lashing out at the BJP for making corruption charges against his Government, Siddharamaiah said that all such charges are false and the BJP is making such baseless allegations out of frustration.

When wished on his birthday, the CM Siddharamaiah said that he was not sure of his birthday date as there are two varying dates —Aug.3,1947 and Aug.12,1947 — one noted by his parents and the other by his teacher respectively.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, former MP Kagalawadi Shivanna, District Rural Congress President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar and a host of district level Officials were present.

Woman injured in minor stampede at Airport

Puttamma, who came to submit a plea to Chief Minister Siddharamaiah at the Mysuru Airport this morning, sustained injuries as there was a large crowd who had gathered there to air their woes to the CM. Due to the mad rush, people pushed each other causing a minor stampede and Puttamma was injured on her toes. Later, an emotional Puttamma said that she had come all the way from her village to meet Siddharamaiah to urge the CM to appoint her son Basavanna as the chairman of any Board or Corporation. Basavanna is a local Congress leader.

Criminals arrested within minutes of robbing a Kerala gold trader

Gundlupet, Aug. 12 (KS)- A gang of criminals, arriving in two vehicles, intercepted a car of a Kerala-based gold trader. They dragged both the driver and the trader from the car, before escaping with the victims vehicle that contained a sum of Rs. 40 lakh. However, swift Police action led to the arrest of four of the culprits within minutes of the incident.

The incident occurred in a broad daylight on Friday at Begur village near Gundlupet. The Police promptly apprehended four suspects and have initiated a search operation to locate the missing car belonging to the gold trader, as well as another vehicle used by the criminals.

Details: On Friday morning, Sukhdev, a gold trader from Kerala, was travelling from Mysuru to Kerala in his Honda City car, with Ashraf as the driver. Around 11 am, as they were driving on Begur Main Road, a gang of assailants wearing helmets approached them in a Toyota Etios and a Toyota Innova. The criminals intercepted the Honda City, forcibly pulled out Sukhdev and Ashraf and sped away with their car, which had Rs. 40 lakh.

In an attempt to evade the Police, the criminals split into different directions in three vehicles. However, the Toyota Innova hit a bridge near Somahalli, causing the vehicle to halt. Nearby residents, Niranjan, Manikanta, and Mahesh, rushed towards the scene from Basava Temple to assist any potential casualties.

However, mistaking them for pursuers, the criminals abandoned the vehicle and fled. The locals managed to detain them, and subsequently, the Police took the suspects into custody.

Superintendent of Police Padmini Sahoo visited Begur Police Station, and gathered information from the Officers there.

Sources indicate that, a total of eight persons were involved in the crime.

The Chamarajanagar District Police, upon receiving the alert, cordoned off all the access points and have deployed strategies to nab the remaining culprits and locate the gold trader's car.

A case has been registered by the Begur Police.

VOICE OF THE READER

Rectify this serious safety hazard immediately

Sir,

I am deeply concerned about the unattended and poorly maintained area below the high-tension power line alongside the 1st Main Road of Sharadadevinagar/CFTRI Layout.

While a part of the fenced segment has been converted into a park with amenities for public use, the remaining area towards the north has been neglected for the past 5-6 years by the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC).

The overgrowth of shrubs and interwoven creeper/climber plants on the barbed fences poses a serious safety hazard. These obstruct the view of vehicles entering from crossroads to the 1st Main Road and vice versa, creating accident-prone black spots. The reckless driving of some motorists, particularly college students, is further exacerbating the risk of minor accidents at these intersections.

I earnestly request our area Corporator of Ward No. 45 and the authorities of MCC to visit the spot and take immediate action to remove the bushy plants and climbers from the fenced area. It is essential to address this issue promptly before any untoward incident occurs, putting the safety of our residents at risk.

Clearing the obstructive vegetation and maintaining this area properly will not only improve road safety but also enhance the overall appearance and accessibility of our neighbourhood. I urge our representatives and the civic authorities to prioritise this matter and take appropriate measures to ensure the well-being of our community members.

From a rising star to being Captain of Mysore Warriors

As the cricketing world eagerly anticipates the Maharaja T20 and the Mysore Warriors' journey in the tournament, Karun Nair's leadership and passion for the game promise an exciting and challenging season ahead. With a wealth of experience and an unyielding commitment, Nair's presence is set to inspire both his teammates and cricket enthusiasts across the globe. Star of Mysore sat down with Karun Nair, Captain of Mysore Warriors, to discuss the significance of Maharaja T20, his experiences as a player, and his journey with the team. Excerpts:

Star of Mysore (SOM): How important is the Maharaja T20 for young cricketers? What is the experience of playing with senior cricketers?

Karun Nair: The Maharaja T20 holds significant importance for young cricketers as it provides them with a prominent platform to display their talents and abilities before a live television audience and a cheering crowd. Participating alongside seasoned cricketers grants them the opportunity to observe the preparations and game play strategies of senior players. This exposure aids emerging players in acquiring insights into effective game preparation and optimal performance techniques.

SOM: How does it feel to be back with the Mysore Warriors team?

Karun Nair: Reuniting with the Mysore Warriors is a truly exhilarating experience. Being a member of the best team and franchise in the Karnataka T20 format brings immense delight, and I feel a deep sense of honour to contribute to this team. The diligent efforts of the team management and Arjun Ranga in crafting this squad and securing players in the auction have been commendable. The anticipation of witnessing our on-field performance fills me with excitement. It is our chance to reciprocate the confidence they have placed in us by selecting us for this team.

Karun Nair, Captain of 'Mysore Warriors'

A consistent, potent force through the middle overs

In the world of cricket, where dreams take the shape of bat and ball, young paceman Prasidh Krishna's journey stands as a testament to dedication, discipline and the unwavering pursuit of excellence. His path is a source of inspiration for countless young cricketers. His tall frame allows him to extract steep bounce while bowling in the high 140s, which made him a key point of difference in the middle overs. As he embarks on new challenges with Mysore Warriors, Star of Mysore catches up with Prasidh Krishna for an exclusive chat. Excerpts:

Star of Mysore (SOM): Tell us about your journey of playing as a young cricketer.

Prasidh Krishna: My path from a young cricket enthusiast to representing India has been quite a journey. Like any other young Indian, I developed a passion for cricket and cherished playing it with friends. One day, my parents enrolled me in a camp, marking the beginning of my cricketing journey. This paved the way for my participation in school matches, zonal competitions, under-14, State-level tournaments, and under-16 and under-19 categories, gradually elevating the seriousness of my involvement in the sport.

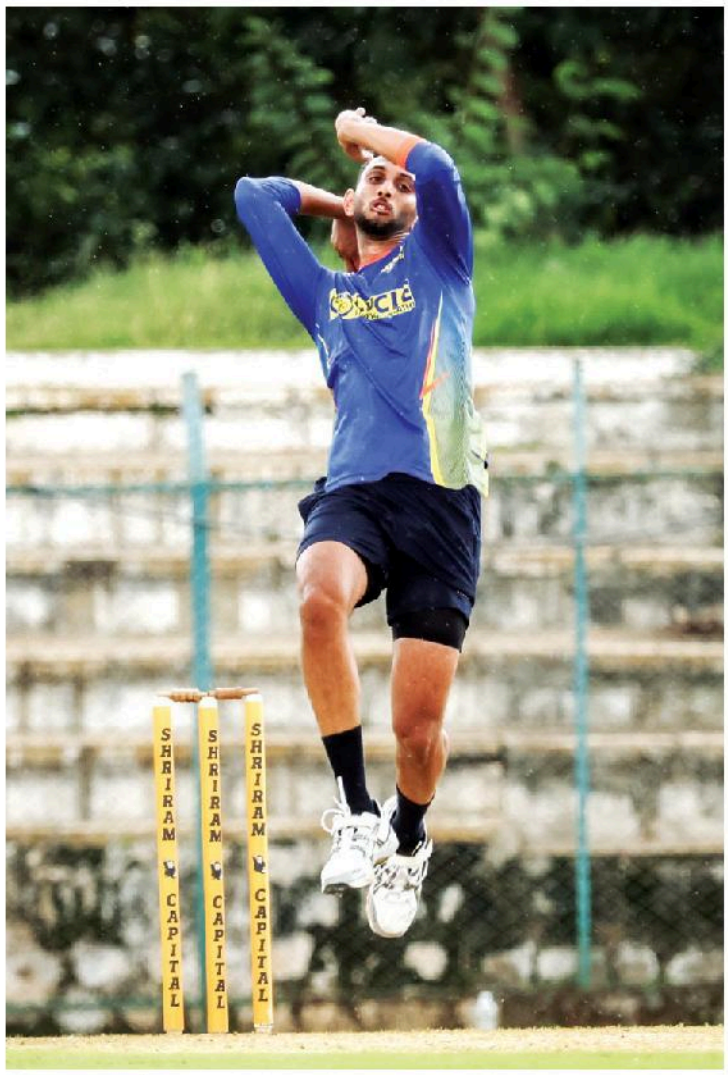
As I progressed to represent Karnataka, cricket took on a more significant role in my life, and I began to believe that it could potentially become a career. The pieces started falling into place, leading to my debut in the senior team. From that point onward, it was a combination of dedication and disciplined hard work that propelled me to my current position.

SOM: How has playing with senior players in the Karnataka Ranji Trophy squad impacted your game?

Prasidh Krishna: The most significant advantage I personally experienced was being a part of the Karnataka squad, which comprised Indian players known for their exceptional work ethics. Their remarkable discipline, astute game reading and ability to clinch victories were truly commendable. I consider my association with Karnataka cricket as my greatest achievement and this remarkable attribute stands out as the X factor for me.

SOM: Can you compare the experience of playing in the IPL with playing for Mysore Warriors in the Maharaja Trophy T20?

Prasidh Krishna: Comparing the experience of playing in the IPL to competing for Mysore Warriors in the Maharaja Trophy T20, there is a distinct charm in having fellow Karnataka players as teammates. The familiarity and shared history make for effortless camaraderie, given that we have grown up playing alongside each other.



I have long admired Mysore Warriors team for its exceptional discipline and passion, evident not only among the players but also extending from the owners to the support staff. – Prasidh Krishna

With the Maharaja Trophy, it's a unique blend of talents, bringing together the finest players in the region. On the other hand, the IPL offers a heightened level of intensity, featuring top-notch players from across the nation. This dynamic setting also allows for cultural exchange, as individuals from diverse backgrounds come together, enriching one's understanding and appreciation of different cultures. It's an enriching experience that adds another layer to the overall journey.

SOM: How does it feel to be a first-time Warrior?

Prasidh Krishna: As a first-time Warrior, my emotions are beyond words, starting from the moment of selection to each practice session. I have long admired this team for its exceptional discipline and passion, evident not only among the players but also extending from the owners to the support staff. It is a sentiment that infuses a strong desire to be a part of this team, and I am genuinely grateful for this opportunity.

SOM: What advice do you have for young aspiring cricketers?

Prasidh Krishna: Engage in the game with fervour and passion, while also nurturing a deep admiration for it. Prioritise discipline and diligent effort, and success will naturally ensue. Focus on the process, allowing the results to flow organically. Avoid burdening yourself with unnecessary pressure; the inherent nature of the game already provides its own challenges. Embrace the enjoyment of playing, combine it with dedicated work, and uphold a strong sense of discipline.

Eminent jurists attend
Advocates' 10th Conference

Reflecting on the evolution of justice delivery from the times of the Maharajas and British rule, when justice was harsh for the less fortunate, Siddharamaiah noted that justice is now dispensed equitably in accordance with the 14th Schedule of the Constitution.

CM recalls childhood

Recalling a childhood incident involving his father seeking advice from a local figure named Channappa, who stated that someone of Siddharamaiah's caste (Kuruba) could not become an advocate, he reflected on how he defied such limitations and eventually became Chief Minister for the second time. He urged the advocate fraternity to administer justice to their clients and serve society to the best of their abilities, expressing his well wishes for the success of the event.

Supreme Court Judge Justice A.S. Bopanna, the Chief Guest, stated that Advocates can ascend to the role of Judges through dedication and effort. He shared his journey to becoming a Supreme Court Judge as inspiration for advocates to strive for greater heights in their careers. Reflecting on his 30-year experience as an advocate, Justice Bopanna highlighted his successful representation in labour dispute cases and his strong affinity for the advocate fraternity.

List of demands

Earlier, the State Bar Council Chairman, H.L. Vishala Raghu, presented a list of demands, including the introduction of the Advocates Protection Act, amendments to the Advocates Welfare Act, budgetary allocation for Advocate welfare, land allotment for the Bar Council, insurance coverage for Advocates and their families, toll exemptions, retirement pensions, and the creation of Legislative Council seats similar to those for teachers and graduates.

Justice A.S. Bopanna was honoured with a garland made from silk cocoons.

Also in attendance were Chief Justice of the Karnataka High Court, Justice Prasanna B. Varale, High Court Judge and Administrative Judge of Mysuru district, Justice K. Somashekar, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister H.K. Patil, Mysuru District In-charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, Karnataka Bar Council Chairman H.L. Vishala Raghu, Bar Council of India Chairman Manan Kumar Mishra, Vice-Chairman S. Prabhakaran, Karnataka Advocate General Shashi Kiran Shetty, Principal District and Sessions Court Judge of Mysuru, G.S. Sangreshi, Mysuru Bar Association President M. Mahadevaswamy, and other office-bearers.

The conference will consist of two sessions today. In the first session, High Court Judge H.P. Sandesh will deliver a talk on the topic 'Role of Advocates in Nation Building,' while the second session will feature Senior High Court Counsel Uday Holla speaking on 'New Dimensions in the Legal Profession.' The day will conclude with cultural programmes at 6.30 pm, followed by a live concert by popular playback singer Rajesh Krishnan.

Boy killed after coming under tempo traveller

Mysuru, Aug. 12 (RK&KS)- A 10-year-old boy was killed while another escaped after coming under a moving tempo traveller vehicle near Abhishek Circle at Hebbal here yesterday evening.

The deceased has been identified as Charan Balaji, son of Ramashetty of Hebbal. He was studying in 5th standard at a school nearby. Charan, along with another boy were coming on a bicycle from Surya Bakery side when they lost control of the bicycle and fell under the moving tempo traveller, which was proceeding from Ring Road Side.

While Charan sustained serious injuries, the other boy managed to escape with minor injuries. Though the tempo traveller driver shifted Charan to a private hospital immediately, the doctors, who examined Charan declared him dead.

V.V. Puram Traffic Police, who rushed to the spot, conducted mahazar, registered a case and shifted the body of Charan from the private hospital to MMC&RI mortuary. V.V. Puram Traffic Police, who have seized the tempo traveller and taken the driver into custody, are investigating.

Assortment of culinary delights

Despite the surge in demand due to the extended weekend including Aug. 12 (second Saturday), Aug. 13 (Sunday) and Aug. 15 (Independence Day), wherein many professionals have applied leave for Monday, Aug. 14. Mysuru Hotel Owners' Association is providing rooms for the delegates at concessional rates.

Catering to the culinary needs of this extensive assembly over the two-day event, a workforce of over 150 skilled cooks from S.S. Caterers, Thirthahalli is diligently preparing a spread encompassing breakfast, lunch, evening snacks and dinner including some Malnad dishes.

With the assistance of over 120 cooks from Ravi Caterers, Mysuru and more than 500 helpers, the culinary team is tirelessly engaged in satisfying the gastronomic desires of the attendees.

The food is being prepared at two venues. Considering the diverse health needs of the participants, particularly those with conditions like diabetes, sweets are made with artificial sweeteners to ensure safe consumption. Confectioneries with and without sugar are distinctly marked at the counters.

Dining logistics have been meticulously planned to accommodate the delegates' requirements. In addition to serving food to the participants, a buffet system has been set up. Welcoming early-morning influx of delegates, breakfast entailed a welcome drink, accompanied by mallige idli, dosa, vada, kesaribath, coffee, tea and badam milk.

The lunch menu comprises babycorn chats, salads, Mysore Pak, obbattu, pakoda, vada, rice bath, vegetarian pulao, white rice, sambar, rasam, and curds. As the day progresses, the evening snack spread features baby jalebi, chilli, banana and potato bhajji. Finally, the dinner menu offers wheat payasam, mini-masala dosa, methi pulav, vada, carrot halwa and ice cream.
